CLEANING & MAINTENANCE

Turn the power OFF and unplug the unit from the electrical outlet. Lift off the outer cover and water tank.

Base: Pour the excess water out of the unit. Wash out the unit with fresh water using the cleaning brush and a soft cloth as needed. Do not submerge the base of the unit into water, or allow water to enter inside the dry air exhaust port.

Water tank: Empty the water tank. Remove the mist nozzle and clean the mist tube with fresh water and a bottle cleaning brush (not included).

Outer surface of the unit: Wipe the surface of the unit with a soft cloth if needed. If you notice an accumulation of water during usage, reduce humidity and dry outer surface with a cloth.

Descaling: Depending on usage and water type, cleaning to remove scale may be required weekly or every other week to optimize unit performance. If you live in a hard water area, we recommend distilled water for your humidifier to help reduce the buildup of minerals or white dust. Do not clean the unit or water tank with harsh detergents or cleaning chemicals. Use vinegar instead.

Using a Decalcification Cartridge: A decalcification cartridge or humidifier cleaner capsule (sold separately) may be used to keep the tank free of hard mineral deposits. We recommend Pure Enrichment's Humidifier Decalcification Cartridge Filter (Model No.: PECLDDCAL). To purchase, visit pureenrichment.com.
